According to Webster, a standing ovation is “an occurrence in which the people at a play, speech, sporting event, etc., stand up and applaud to show enthusiastic approval or appreciation.” The Gold Coast Jazz Society hopes that this 28th season will have you jumping up with a standing ovation for each of the talented artists that we are presenting this year. The jazz concert series includes an incredible array of jazz artists that are innovative and creative, performing straight-ahead tunes, new variations of old favorites and standards from the Great American Songbook. The musicians performing will include internationally acclaimed musicians as well as outstanding local artists.

As in the past, all of this season’s concerts will occur at the intimate Amaturo Theater at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts, 201 SW 5th Avenue in Fort Lauderdale and begin at 7:45pm. Prior to the December, January and February concerts you can Engage Your Senses at 6:45pm with Lyn Farmer’s popular pre-show jazz and wine lecture. We’ll have some local students providing jazz in the lobby before some of the other concerts. Full Season and Jazz Trio subscriptions are still available for both members and non-members. Don’t forget that GCJS members enjoy a reduced subscription price, so consider becoming a member if you are not already one to save significantly on subscription prices and to help us keep the music alive. Single tickets for each concert are available at the Broward Center’s AutoNation Box Office at 954-462-0222 or online at www.browardcenter.org. Student and teacher tickets are $15 with a valid ID for all concerts.

On NOVEMBER 13, the series begins with a “Tribute to Broadway and Hollywood” featuring the Bobby Rodriguez Jazz Orchestra with special guest Nestor Torres. Bobby is a musician well known in the South Florida area. Nestor Torres’ mellifluous flute sounds have garnered him a Latin Grammy-Award and collaborations with multiple artists including Gloria Estefan, Kenny Loggins, Dave Mathews, Herbie Hancock, Tito Puente, Michael Camilo Paquito D’Rivera and Arturo Sandoval. Learn more about Bobby Rodriguez and Nestor Torres at www.facebook.com/BobbyRodriguezOrchestra and www.nestortorres.com.

On December 4 the Emmet Cohen Trio will make their debut at the Broward Center. The Trio is making waves in the New York City jazz scene and across the globe and melds all styles of jazz with an emphasis on the Great American Songbook. Cohen is a rising star in the jazz world and is the 2019 winner of the American Pianists Association Cole Porter Award. He has accompanied numerous jazz luminaries and plays with the command of a seasoned veteran. His fluid technique, innovative tonal palette, and expansive repertoire have earned him critical acclaim. Emmet’s sidemen include Russell Hall on bass and Kyle Poole on drums. Many folks will remember Russell Hall from his years as a jazz student at Dillard Center for the Arts. For more information, go to www.emmetcohen.com. Enjoy some pre-show music by students of the Dillard Center for the Arts Jazz Ensemble beginning at 6:45pm in the Amaturo Lobby.
The Shelly Berg Trio will return on JANUARY 8 with special guest Veronica Swift. One of the hottest young stars on the jazz scene today, the exciting and enchanting vocalist, Veronica Swift, joins forces with Shelly Berg for an evening of swinging jazz. At the young age of 24, Veronica has already accumulated numerous acknowledgements of her talent, including 2nd place at the Thelonious Monk Jazz Competition. She currently tours and records with the Emmet Cohen Trio, Benny Green Trio and Chris Botti, and will be one of the featured vocalists on the heralded 2020 Jazz Cruise. Shelly Berg is “a whirlwind of motion on the piano bench who never sounds a dull note,” says Bill Kohlhasse, LA Times. This award-winning pianist, arranger, composer, producer, and educator is also the Dean of the University of Miami’s Frost School of Music. David Chiverton, will be the drummer for the trio. To learn more about these artists go to www.veronicaswift.com and www.shellyberg.com.

The FEBRUARY 12 concert will feature the return of the acclaimed jazz guitarist and vocalist, John Pizzarelli and his trio. As a recording artist, radio jazz host and touring artist, Pizzarelli is “reinvigorating the Great American Songbook and re-popularizing Jazz,” boasts the Boston Globe. His concert will focus on his recent CD, For Centennial Reasons: 100 Year Salute to Nat King Cole. To learn more about John, go to www.johnpizzarelli.com.

On MARCH 11, the Terell Stafford Quintet will be the featured artists presenting a concert in tribute to the music of jazz legends Billy Strayhorn and Lee Morgan. A NYC based trumpeter, Stafford has been hailed by McCoy Tyner as “one of the great players of our time, a fabulous trumpet player.” Terell’s Quintet will include Tim Warfield on tenor sax, Bruce Barth on piano, Nathan Pence on bass and Billy Williams on drums. To learn more about these artists go to www.nightisalive.com/terell-stafford. Come early to the theater to enjoy pre-show music by members of the Pine Crest School Jazz Ensemble in the Amaturo Lobby beginning at 6:45pm.

Our APRIL 15 concert will feature the return of yet another Gold Coast Jazz favorite, jazz pianist and vocalist Tony DeSare. This phenomenal jazz artist brings his fresh take on old school classics. He’s won critical acclaim for his three Billboard Top 10 jazz albums and for his exciting performances in jazz clubs, at Carnegie Hall, with symphony orchestras and in Las Vegas. DeSare releases new recordings, videos of standards and new originals every few weeks on his YouTube channel, iTunes and Spotify. To learn more about this artist go to www.tonydesare.com. Enjoy some pre-show music by the New River Middle School Jazz Band at 6:45pm in the lobby of the Amaturo Theater.

The closing concert for the series on MAY 13 will feature the Gold Coast Jazz debut of the Nicki Parrott Trio. The Trio includes Nicki Parrott on bass and vocals, drummer Ed Metz, Jr and the award-winning Italian jazz pianist Rossano Sportiello. Nicki was Les Paul’s bassist and vocalist for over 10 years. In addition to performing at most of the world’s top jazz festivals, Nicki has performed with such jazz greats as Randy Brecker, Clark Terry, Jose Feliciano, Rebecca Paris, Bucky Pizzarelli, John Pizzarelli, Dick Hyman, Michel Legrand, Marlena Shaw, Mike Stern, David Krakauer, Ken Peplowski, Ann Hampton Callaway, Scott Hamilton, Larry Carlton and Frank Vignola, to name a few. To learn more about this artist go to www.nickiparrott.com.

There is still time for you to become a subscriber and the savings are great on the season subscriptions if you become a member of Gold Coast Jazz. So join us and help us keep jazz alive for yet another year in our community.

President's Message

Historians date to about 100 years ago the start of a period that came to be known as the Jazz Age. Cats like Paul Whiteman, Jelly Roll Morton, George Gershwin, and Fats Waller were topping the charts, and out of King Oliver’s Creole Jazz Band rose Pops himself, Louis Armstrong. The music, the fashion, the dances, the flappers, what a time it must have been! Unfortunately most of us weren’t around to enjoy it the first time, but as we begin the year 2020, I think it’s about time to play it again. Won’t you join Gold Coast Jazz as we enter the new Roaring Twenties?

We certainly have a great season in store to help set the mood. The Bobby Rodriguez Orchestra kicks off the season in November with special guest Nestor Torres for a tribute to Broadway and Hollywood. In December, piano virtuoso Emmet Cohen will have both hands full of keys jumping just like Fats. Sensational chanteuse Veronica Swift joins the Shelly Berg Trio for our first concert of 2020. Then in February, John Pizzarelli brings his trio back for a centennial salute to Nat King Cole. In March, Terell Stafford and his quintet will revisit the music of Billy Strayhorn and Lee Morgan. GCJS favorite, Tony DeSare, returns in April. And we finish in May, with the Nicki Parrott Trio and a swinging, elegant evening we fully expect to make her a new favorite!

We’ll throw in some exciting events along the way, beginning with “U & the Night & the Music” on November 21st, featuring University of Miami’s Stamps Jazz Quintet. On January 24th, bust out your best Charleston or Lindy Hop—or just tap your toes to the music at Grateful Palate, as we “Dance the Night Away!” We’re planning another “Spread Before the Jam” in March, and also a “Serenade at Sunset” in a new location. And there’s more swinging fun to come.

But while we relish our turn to roar through the 2020s, with your support Gold Coast Jazz is working to ensure our beloved American art form will still be thriving in another hundred years. That’s why we take jazz into the schools with Mari Bell’s innovative JazzSLAM program. That’s why we provide a musical home to jazz students with our First Friday Jazz Jams. And that’s why our Jeanette Russell and Robert Friedman scholarship programs have sent hundreds of talented young musicians to college and summer jazz camps.

Thank you for all your support. Let’s enjoy these new Roaring Twenties together, and let’s make ‘em roar loud enough to echo on for generations!

We want YOUR feedback and suggestions about our concerts and artists. Visit our website and “contact us”. Our artistic planning committee will respond.

Gold Coast Jazz Scholarship Program

In the spring of 2019, the Gold Coast Jazz Society conducted the 17th annual Jeanette M. Russell Jazz Scholarship Competition. Through the monetary support of the estate of Jeanette M. Russell and support from the Elizabeth and Daniel O’Connor Family Foundation, the Gold Coast Jazz Society awarded financial scholarships to the students listed below to help offset summer jazz camp and college tuition expenses. This function of the Gold Coast Jazz Society has some of the most far reaching effects on the future of deserving music students. We are proud to support the educational efforts of these talented individuals. (Not pictured, Philippe Clément)

Students are selected based upon financial need and artistic ability and participate in a live audition process. Jazz camp scholarship recipients attended a variety of summer camps or workshops around the country including the Berklee Aspire Summer Intensive, Brevard Jazz Camp, Brubeck Summer Jazz Colony, Jamey Aebersold Jazz Camp, Jazz at Lincoln Center, Litchfield Jazz Camp, National Youth Orchestra Jazz Workshop, Snow College Jazz Workshop, Vail Jazz Workshop and University of Music Young Musicians Jazz Camp.

College award recipients are attending various colleges or universities including Broward College, Florida International University, Juilliard School of Music, Manhattan School of Music, Michigan State University, and the University of Miami.

You can help us make a difference by joining the Gold Coast Jazz Society and supporting our fundraising activities. If you would like to make a contribution to the scholarship activities, please call our office at 954.524.0805.

GCJS Scholarship Spotlight
To learn how you can contribute to the scholarship program, please call the Gold Coast Jazz Society office at 954.524.0805

From time to time we're asked about the success of our scholarship alumni. Many of the students that we have supported have gone on to successful careers as professional jazz musicians or have become jazz educators. Below is a brief message from one of the scholarship recipients, Miguel Russell.

As you may already know, drumming is a very important part of my life. The summer of 2019 has been especially exciting for me. With the financial support of the Gold Coast Jazz Society, I have had the opportunity to travel and study music and jazz in particular, with some of the most renowned musicians in the country. In July, I attended the Snow College Jazz workshop in Ephraim, Utah, under the direction of the legendary drummer, Carl Allen. It was quite an experience and introduced me to a part of the country that I never had the chance to visit. That was just the beginning. In August, I attended the Vail Jazz Workshop in Colorado and became part of a very select group of students studying and performing for ten days with jazz greats, John Clayton, Wycliffe Gordon, Louis Nash and several other notable mentors. What a way to start my senior year at Dillard. Hope to make some great music in the future.

JazzSLAM Receives Pinnacle Award

We’re excited to share the news that the JazzSLAM (Jazz Supports Language Arts & Math) program recently received the 2018-19 Pinnacle Award from the Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC). In addition to providing the JazzSLAM program in local elementary schools, creator and leader Mari Mennel-Bell has expanded the program to include distance learning and ELearning sessions for grades 3 – 9 in five different states (Ohio, Texas, Louisiana, New York and Pennsylvania). She has also conducted JazzSLAM clinics for FAAE (Florida Alliance for Arts Education) and for JEN (Jazz Education Network). Congratulations to Mari for receiving this prestigious award!

The 2019-2020 school year marks the eleventh year that the Gold Coast Jazz Society has presented the JazzSLAM program in local public elementary schools in Broward County. Each year GCJS raises the funds necessary to present this program in up to 20 local elementary schools for 4th and 5th grade students at NO COST. Warmly received by teachers and students alike, JazzSLAM bridges the music of jazz with math, reading and writing skills. Mari leads the JazzSLAM Quartet which includes Senegal Apostolo on bass, Orlando Muchado on drums and Bill Coleman on guitar and vocals.

Presentations of JazzSLAM are provided for FREE for the individual school and students. To provide this program at no cost, Gold Coast Jazz secures local grants and we gladly accept individual donations to this program. If you would like to help support the JazzSLAM program call the GCJS office at 954-524-0805.

Create a Lasting Legacy with the Gold Coast Jazz Society

“Immortality is to live your life doing good things, and leaving your mark behind.”
— Brandon Lee

Mary Porter and Jeanette Russell lived their lives doing good and left their mark on our community and beyond. Mary Porter lived a dynamic life. Through Mary’s unprecedented generous gift to the Community Foundation of Broward, she provides support to many cultural organizations in Broward County. Jeanette, who was fondly known as “Lady Jazz,” supported many musicians, jazz concerts and jazz events throughout the country. After making Fort Lauderdale their homes, both Mary and Jeanette had the foresight to leave lasting legacies to the community they both loved.

Consider the Gold Coast Jazz Society in your estate planning as you too can leave a legacy gift. If you have a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) or want to learn how to leave a legacy or current charitable gift, contact your attorney, financial advisor or the Community Foundation of Broward.
